The Daily Freeman.

VOL. 1. CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT,) N. Y., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1872. NO. 208.

THE DAILY FREEMAN,

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

Sundays excepted,

BY HORATIO FOWKS,

at the

Newkirk Building, Division St.,

City of Kingston, (Rondout, N. Y.)

The DAILY FREEMAN will be an Independent Republican Journal, with an opinion on every subject, firm in its advocacy of freedom, equal rights and just laws for all men; outspoken in its opposition to the abuses and the follies of the day, in favor of progress and improvement everywhere, and especially devoted to the interests of the City of Kingston and vicinity.

The Telegraphic News Department will be complete and well supplied, the FREEMAN being a MEMBER OF THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS, through which it receives and is enabled to present a full summary of intelligence from all parts of the world every morning.

Local News and especially City, Town and County News will receive special attention, paid correspondents being employed in all parts of the county. All news received from other than our regular correspondents will paid for if used. Full reports of all important meetings will be presented, and in every respect the DAILY FREEMAN will be a First-Class Paper and a worthy companion of the WEEKLY FREEMAN.

Commercial and Stock Reports carefully corrected every day.

THE DAILY FREEMAN will furnish for the breakfast table of its patrons the News from All Parts of the World up to 3 o'clock, A. M.

Terms—Six Dollars per year, payable invariably in advance. If collected weekly, Fifteen Cents per week. Single copies four cents.

Advertisements will be displayed as ordered, and charged according to the space occupied, measured in inches down the column.

HORATIO FOWKS.
Editor, Proprietor and Publisher.

THE WEEKLY FREEMAN, a large, well-filled paper, will be sent to subscribers at $2 per annum, payable in advance. HORATIO FOWKS,
Editor, Proprietor and Publisher.

JOB PRINTING in all its branches Promptly, Cheaply and Neatly Done. By the use of STEAM POWER and a large force we are enabled to turn out work at a rate that distances all competition. We have facilities for printing Law Cases unequalled between New York and Albany.

English Printers going to America.

The London correspondent of the Weekly Trade Circular writes at follows:

The London Society of Compositors, in taking the part of its members, has often imposed such unjust rules that the masters rebel whenever opportunity occurs. Some time ago the society was all-powerful, and though it still has great power, its influence is on the wane. Their late movement for a reduction in the hours of labor has increased the cost of printing without giving the laborers any pecuniary benefit. Indeed it is very questionable if the men, having an extra six hours a week on their hand, are not worse off than heretofore, as to be able to enjoy such hours of idleness an additional six hours' pay ought to be given or they will dip more deeply into their regular wages. There are still a large number of compositors upon strike, and there is but little chance of work being found for all until Autumn is well advanced, as many of the men were old employees, who, having been retained after their prime had passed, were really doing their employers a service in striking, while by reason of their age, infirmities, or incapacity, they are unlikely to gain permanent "sits" in other houses. We hear rumors that a movement is on foot for sending some of these unfortunates to the United States and Canada, as an idea exists among many individuals in this country that the Transatlantic printers are making a fine harvest.

The Wheat Crop of California.

The farmers of California are now gathering the largest crop of wheat ever raised in the State. It not only excels in quantity but in quality. The number of acres being harvested is largely in excess of that of former years, and the yield per acre is greater than ever before. Other crops grown in the state, we learn from the California papers, give promise of an abundant yield. The rains that have fallen east of the mountains are having an excellent influence upon the crops in the western and middle states, and it is to be hoped will successfully contribute toward bringing to the husbandman an abundant reward for his toil.

The Emperor of China is soon to be married. The Bombay Gazette says his Majesty has imported a pair of elephants to assist at the ceremony. His future consort is undergoing a careful training in the etiquette of court life. For three years the looms of Nankin, Hong-chau and Canton have been engaged on the silks and satins for her bridal trousseau, and just now they are announced as completed, at a cost of nearly half a million of our money. While the bridegroom, who has the sun for his emblem, goes forth in a car drawn by elephants, his bride, who represents the moon, is to be borne to her palace in a palanquin composed entirely of strings of pearls.

There is less crime in Alaska, according to its population, than in any other portion of the globe. Whale's blubber is not an exciting dish.

Two Massachusetts men came to blows a day or two ago in a dispute as to where a female relative, now in good health, and with a fair prospect of a long life, shall be buried when she dies.

JOHN G. WOLVEN,
OF THE
CITY LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLES,
To supply the great demand of his customers, has purchased of Brewster & Co., of Broome street, New York, a very fine LANDAU CARRIAGE of elegant design, IMPORTED FROM BERLIN, Prussia, at the cost of $3,000. It can be easily changed in three different ways to suit customers—closed, half-top or all open. He has also new buggies, two-seated park phaetons, first-class horses, four in-hand-turn-outs, and careful drivers, to be let on reasonable terms.
Having purchased nearly an entire new stock, he will sell his entire former stock, consisting of carriages, buggies, harness, three-seated wagons, half-tops, rockaways &c., many of which are nearly new, at a great sacrifice. Summer boarding-house keepers and others who desire to procure good carriages and wagons at low prices, will do well to give him a call. No better bargains can be offered in the City of Kingston.

THE DAILY FREEMAN.

CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT.)

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1872.

The Proper Spirit.

We are glad to see that our Common Council is determined to practice economy. They are set to watch lest the public funds are wasted or expended foolishly or extravagantly. It is their duty to get all their work done as economically as possible.

Their decision in regard to the advertising of the City Ordinances is proper and right. It may in some cases be considered necessary that ordinances should be published in papers that are most widely read and have the largest regular circulation, as the object of publication is to bring them before as many taxpayers as possible. But there are plenty of them in which publication is a mere form, and in which cheapness of price is, and should be, the determining consideration.

In inviting prices from the different publishers our City Fathers have done perfectly right, and we hope the result will prove that they have saved a considerable sum to the treasury. Two papers are to be selected, which are to be chosen solely by the price offered by the publishers. The tax-payers will watch the decision with interest.

Now that the printing matter is up the Common Council can hardly do less than order all its printing done by the lowest bidder. The printing for the first year will be large, and the city should save on this as well as on advertising.

The Great Jubilee.

The great jubilee has commenced, and its reverberating harmony is now in tumultuous continuation. If ever Boston deserved to be called "The Hub," it is now, for from her very heart there start sounds which stay not their swelling career until they strike the Rocky Mountains. And it must be conceded that Boston is doing up the thing nicely, not to say handsomely. She has welcomed the foreign bands, has shut up many of her shops just so their proprietors can see whether the strangers have ears large enough to hear all the noise, and a large and influential committee of her citizens have occupied the curbstones and fences, watching the army of visitors pass into the Cave of Sounds, eating peanuts in the most generous and liberal manner.

Of the Jubilee itself, it becomes every American to be proud. It's the biggest noise on the continent, and, what's more—in the world. Seventeen thousand voices can make a tremendous noise, and there is a power of sound in an anvil chorus, if only the firemen who pound are strong of arm and well developed in the biceps way.

So far the Jubilee has been a mingled failure and success. The voices and instruments harmonized better than could have been expected, but the intricate pieces were too much for Gilmore's skill. The chief lady singer wasn't half big enough, in voice we mean, probably because the building was too large. Either the latter was the case, or her throat was too small, as there were several acres of space which did not catch a note. It is quite a pity that Miss Swan, the Giantess, never learned to warble.

Several features of the grand event have not yet made their appearance. The thunder-storm which started from this section last Wednesday has strayed from the route probably, for not a mutter of it has been heard in Boston. The nitro-glycerine serenade, two hundred pounds strong, is reserved. The rendering of Yankee Doodle, by all the locomotives of the Erie, N. Y. Central and Union Pacific roads, will not be given this week, owing to difficulty in reducing the pitch of the broad-gauge minstrels. But all these matters will come right shortly, and there'll soon be a noise over there in Boston which will make the car doctors fairly jump with joy. Already three thousand of the singers have had to put in extra tympana.

The Horse Railroad.

There are many complaints entered at this office against the conductors on the street cars, for not keeping a lookout for passengers. They invariably say they are either looking at the passengers in the cars or talking to some one on the platform, instead of keeping a sharp eye out at every corner for passengers. This negligence on their part compels many to walk against their will, while the company loses just so much fare. We invariably send such complainants to the officers of the Company, yet are forced to say this want of vigilance is a nuisance. Horse railroads have a franchise from the public for its accommodation, which its officers and stockholders are bound to look after. In most any other city it is hard to keep one's self from being coaxed in the cars, let alone running after them. It should be just so here. We hope for more vigilance hereafter.

The Reconstructed Railroad.

The President, Vice President and most of the Directors of the New York, Kingston & Syracuse Railroad went up the line yesterday, accompanied by Uncle John Satterlee and Litchfield. They are supposed to have gone for a social business journey, and to tell the young Litchfield how easy it is to be big railroad men on one share of stock, worth say $10. Whether they explained how they opposed the road for years to fight Cornell and progress, has not been reported. Modesty and self respect may have kept them from that. If the journey only teaches the young man the brilliancy of the present and late officers, a great good will be done to society. He seems to be apt and and may be taught by their course. Wait and see.

Associated Press Dispatches.

BY TELEGRAPH TO DAILY FREEMAN.

THE MISSION OF THE JAPANESE.

YOKOHOMA, Japan, May 25.

Governor Ito of the Japanese Embassy returns to America on the steamer Great Republic, accompanied by Vice Minister of foreign affairs, Terasshima.

Greater powers have been delegated them by the Mikado, and the foreign powers will be made fully acquainted with Japanese views ere the Embassy returns, which is now stated to be in a year, instead of eight months. The intention of the American government to demand the throwing open to foreigners, of the whole country, or at least the ten districts around Sarugo, has met with cordial favor from all parties. The people everywhere were elated at the prospect of their country being opened to foreign intercourse, and are preparing for the change.

MAINE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

BANGOR, Me., June 18.

The Democratic State Convention reassembled at 3 o'clock. The whole number of delegates present were 723.

Hon. J. C. Madigan, permanent President, introduced Hon. C. P. Kimball of Portland, as the "to-be successful candidate for Governor," who was enthusiastically received, and made a stirring speech in acceptance of the nomination, and in support of the nominations of the Cincinnati Convention. He was followed by the Hon. B. Bradbury of Portland in the same strain, after which the Convention proceeded to ballot for delegates at large. The following is the platform adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That the principles enumerated by the late Cincinnati convention, taken in connection with the letter of Horace Greeley accepting the nomination of that Convention, constitutes a platform on which all the elements in opposition to the present corrupt administration of federal government, can stand; and we hereby adopt as the platform of the Democracy of Maine, the following propositions of Horace Greeley's letter: Here follow the nine propositions formerly stated in the letter above referred to.

Resolved, That we believe the great reforms for which patriotic men of all parties are now laboring, can be best obtained by supporting as a candidate for our next President, Horace Greeley; and we recommend to our delegates, to vote for the Cincinnati candidates.

Resolved, That we pledge to the nominee of that convention, our united efforts, and shall hail his election as the commencement of a purer political era.

EXTRA SESSION OF THE STATE SENATE.

ALBANY, June 18.

The Senate met in extra session at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The following Senators answered to their names: Adams, Allen, Baker, Benedict, Chatfield, Cock, Dickinson, Foster, Graham, Hanover, Johnson, Lewis, Lowery, Murphy, Perry, Robertson, Tieman, Wagner, Weisman, Winslow, D. P. Wood, J. Wood, and Woodin.

Colonel Van Buren, private secretary to the Governor, entered the chamber and presented the following communication to the Senate, which was read and laid on the table.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, ALBANY, June 18,

To the Senate.

I respectfully transmit herewith, the charges and specifications presented to me by a committee of the bar association of the city of New York, alleging official misconduct on the part of George M. Curtis, a justice of the Marine Court of the city of New York, and asking his removal from office in accordance with section 11 of article 6 of the constitution of this state, also the documentary proof submitted to me in support of the charges together with the answer of Judge Curtis thereto, and the proofs submitted in support of such answer.

After examining the same, I deem it my duty to present the same to the Senate, and I recommend that you inquire into the charges so made, and if it be the truth, and a sufficiency thereof shall be established to the satisfaction of the Senate, that the same George M. Curtis be then removed from the office of Justice of the said Marine Court. Signed,

JOHN T. HOFFMAN.

On motion of Mr. Benedict the Senate went into executive session.

On re-opening the doors, the President announced that the Senate had taken a vote on the demurrer presented by Judge Prindle, and decided it should not be sustained.

On motion of D. P. Wood, the counsel on both sides have the opportunity to agree on the manner in which Judge Prindle's trial shall be conducted.

Rules for the governance of the Senate were then taken up and discussed.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

NEW YORK, June 18.

Secretary Robeson inspected the Brooklyn Navy Yard to-day.

The Americus club house, Greenwich, was sold to Mr. Voorhees, one of its creditors, for fifteen thousand dollars.

The district master of Orangemen denies the rumors that they will parade with revolvers, and says they intend to be peaceable law-abiding citizens.

The trial of Gyles, abortionist, commenced to-day.

It is reported that General Sickles is on his way home, and is re-elected President of the Erie road.

The jury are unable to agree in the case of several Irish Catholics indicted for the murder of a Protestant during the riot at Bayonne, N. J. in April.

There are no new developments at police headquarters in relation to the prevalent strikes. The entire police force are on duty, ready for any emergency. A large force are stationed at the Metropolitan Gas Company's works, protecting a new gang of workmen.

Durant's sugar refinery was also protected by a strong force in anticipation of an attack. Meetings of various striking associations were held to-day. Three hundred and fifty men employed at different gas works assembled this morning and resolved to demand 8 hours a day or twenty per cent. advance on wages.

A large majority of the boiler makers and machinists of Jersey City struck this morning.

The New York metal workers feel confident their strike will be completely successful within a week or ten days.

The eight-hour league held a pic-nic in Jones' woods this afternoon.

SECOND DAY OF THE BOSTON JUBILEE.

BOSTON, June 18.

The Coliseum was somewhat better filled this afternoon. The performance commenced with the choral "Now may the will of God be done," given by a full chorus, organ and orchestra.

One of the attractions of to-day's programme was the debut of Madame Peschka Leutner. She sang an aria from the "magic flute," accompanied by the full orchestra. At its close the whole audience arose and applauded.

Madame Arrabella Goddant was warmly welcomed on her first appearance in this country, and played a piano solo, the "Last rose of Summer."

After this intermission, the Grenadier guard's band under lead of Dan. Godfrey, made their appearance and was received with tremendous cheering by the whole audience; the organ playing an English anthem.

After the applause subsided Madame Rudersdorff was led to the rostrum by Gilmore. The British National Anthem was then performed. The final chorus was accompanied by the Grenadier and all bands, and organ, at full power, while the bells of the city, and cannon, were brought into requisition. The enthusiasm was immense.

Gilmore resigned his baton to Godfrey, who conducted the performance on repetition in answer to the encore. Godfrey returned the baton, and conducted the Grenadier band through the Star Spangled Banner, with full cannon accompaniment, causing great outbursts of applause, and cheering for the red coats. The anvil chorus was next performed with the usual accompaniment, and the concert closed by singing the Missionary Hymn. There is now no question of the perfect success of the enterprise.

THE TRIAL OF GENERAL BUTLER.

NEW YORK, June 18.

The case of Tilden vs. Gen. Butler again occupied the session of the United States Circuit Court to-day. Geogrge Hunnewell, formerly owner of the steamer Nassau, testified to her seizure.

Mr. Devlin opened the case for the defence saying defendant was the most abused man in America. He had been cruelly maligned and misrepresented during the last ten years, and this was the first opportunity he had had of having one of his so called infamous acts passed upon by a jury of his countrymen. It has been asserted that General Butler and his brother Andrew J. Butler, had made millions of dollars in New Orleans, and that Andrew J. had retained from one to two millions of this amount.

This was utterly untrue, for Andrew J. had died bankrupt, his assets not being equal to fifty per cent. of his liabilities. It would be shown in the present case that the Nassau was not seized at all by Gen. Butler, but that Gen. Butler paid the full value of her to Hunnewell who was perfectly willing to sell the vessel, and who made out a bill of sale voluntarily in Gen. Butler's office.

It had been said by the prosecution that Andrew J. monopolized the tow boat business below New Orleans and he feared that Hunnewell was about to make a tow boat of the Nassau and compete with him. This was utterly untrue, Andrew J. never having any connection with the tow boat business at New Orleans, Gen. Butler not hearing until the present suit was instituted, that his brother Andrew J. had ever obtained an interest in the Nassau. It would be shown that the Nassau was not worth more than $25,000, that being the amount she sold for at auction in New York a few months before she came into the possession of Gen. Butler at New Orleans, when he gave much more than her actual value to Hunnewell, who untruthfully represented himself as the owner. The suit had been brought to this city because it was thought there was enough prejudice here against Butler to condemn him, whether justly or unjustly. The suit should have been brought to Massachussetts, where both Butler and Hunnewell live.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

WASHINGTON June 18.

Our government has not objected, and does not propose to object to a postponement of arbitration at Geneva, and will do nothing to give the Queen a reason for withdrawing from the arbitration. It is considered within the power of the tribunal to grant a postponement for a reasonable time, or until the Senate again meets in its regular course, to act upon such modifications of the amended additional article as may be proposed by Great Britain. No extra session will be called, but in the meantime nothing will be done on our part to occasion a failure of the treaty. No fears are now entertained in that direction, and there is no information to warrant the conclusion that the efforts to adjust the difference will be ineffectual.

OFFICIAL WEATHER REPORT.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, June 19, 1 A. M.

Fresh to brisk southerly winds veering to westerly, partially cloudy weather and possibly occasional areas of light rain north and west of the Ohio Valley; clear and partially cloudy weather for the New England and Middle States, with light to fresh southerly winds, and for the Southern States light to fresh winds, except over the southern portion of the South Atlantic States, where easterly winds, cloudy weather and areas of rain are probable.

Coal Arrival.

On Tuesday eighty-one canal boats laden with ten thousand two hundred and sixty tons of coal reached tide water at Eddyville through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

St. Peter's Parsonage.

Our paragraph in regard to the contract for building St. Peter's Parsonage should have stated that Turck & Burhans were the lowest bidders, for which reason the contract was awarded to them.

Strawberry Festival.

The ladies of the First M. E. Sunday School will hold a strawberry festival at the lecture room this evening. Friends of the school are cordially invited to attend. Plenty of good things will be provided.

A Liberal Offer.

At a meeting of the Superintendent and teachers of the Baptist Sunday School, held on the evening of the 18th, to take into consideration the want of proper accommodation for the school, the Hon. Thomas Cornell offered to donate the lot immediately south of the church for a building site and promised $3,500 to the building fund. From the interest manifested we judge the project is to be a success.

A Dishonest Woman.

A woman, unknown to any one in the establishment, went into the store of Simon Wood, on Garden street, on Monday, and thinking herself unobserved seized a piece of goods and hid it in her clothing. She soon afterward, evidently becoming alarmed, left the store and crossed the street to Weaver's restaurant, where she slyly deposited the goods behind a door and vamosed. Mr. Weaver found the stolen property and returned it to Mr. Wood. "Sime" thinks she is a dishonest woman.

Drowned.

A man named Sherman Baldwin, while bathing in the creek near Dunnigan's Monday night about dusk was drowned. He went bathing with a colored young man by the name of Wm. Oliver. Oliver says Baldwin told him he was going to be gone a minute. He then dived, and not coming to the surface, the colored boy gave the alarm to some parties near, but it being near dark they were unable to rescue him. The two sisters of the young man came from New York yesterday to visit him. He was 18 years old.

Suspicious Persons.

On Tuesday morning about two o'clock, a man in the employ of Mr. Jansen Hasbrouck saw two men come from the rear of L. G. H. Davis' store. They crossed Mr. Hasbrouck's grounds and went up the railroad where it crosses Hasbrouck Ave. The man thinks from their behavior that they meditated burglarizing some of the stores in the neighborhood, but for some cause abandoned their dishonest intentions. These chaps will fool around until somebody empties a revolver at them, and it is to be hoped that in that case some of the shots will hit.

Prosperous.

Our enterprising friend, James S. Dean, who, when he left Rondout, carried with him a deal of business energy and go-aheaditiveness, we are glad to see is prospering finely in his business. He has a large patronage at his boat-yard in Brooklyn and is steadily increasing it. His reputation for doing fine work calls the most desirable and best paying customers to him, and the result is financial prosperity to our friend. We are pleased to note that he has just purchased a fine residence, with 77 acres of ground, at Norwalk, Conn., where he will hereafter reside with his family, though continuing his business in Brooklyn.

A Queer Bird.

The FREEMAN night force are puzzled over an odd specimen of insect captured the other night after a severe struggle. Its body resembles that of a "miller," but is much larger than any we ever saw before. Its wings are very large, being, when extended, about six inches long, and terminating when closed in long, slender ends which project backward like the tail of a swallow. From its head protrude two members precisely resembling miniature skeleton fern leaves. The compos have originated a discussion as to whether it is a bird or an insect, but until some experienced naturalist gives his opinion the question must remain undecided.

Enoch Arden Last Evening.

On the whole, we think "Enoch Arden" the best performance Turck's Star Company have given us. The actors understand their roles and interpret the characters well, and the different parts are made to harmonize and the whole performance works smoothly. Mr. Turck was a very ardent Enoch Arden and impressed the audience very favorably. Mr. Glassford as Dr. Grammett was very comical in his Shakesperian eccentricities. Miss Fisher, a favorite here, took the part of Miriam Lane very effectively. Mr. Strest as Philip Ray, did admirably. Miss Lizzie Mellville supported the role of Annie capitally. The minor parts were well filled and the scenery much better than at previous performances. The hall was well filled, and we can promise the play-lovers up-town they will be pleased with Enoch Arden at Music Hall to-night.

A Moonlight Sail.

A large party of young people from the lower part of the city enjoyed a fine moonlight sail on Monday night. Capt. "Sandy's" neat little boat Sandy conveyed them to Saugerties, where they disembarked and astonished the natives by marching in procession—about twenty-five couples—from the landing to the main portion of the town in search of ice cream and other refreshments. They didn't find any ice cream. We haven't but one fault to find with Saugerties; the ice cream saloon is too far up town and don't keep open late enough—but they found courteous treatment and "other refreshments" at Turck's popular hotel. After resting awhile at the hostelry they started for home and enjoyed a delightful sail in the beautiful moonlight on their return.

That the party behaved themselves with the utmost decorum may be inferred that a citizen of Saugerties stopped one of them to inquire whose funeral it was. After that there was more levity.

The Launch.

The steamer Thomas Dickson was launched from the ship yard of Morgan Everson at high water on Tuesday. The day was a perfect one, and the crowd of ladies and men who assembled to see the wedding of old Neptune to a young bride seemed in sympathy with mother Nature, for the men "smiled, and smiled" while the ladies wore colors enough to grace a July day. The boat to be launched was decked with flags and streamers and evergreens which had been very tastefully arranged by Captain Gus. Tremper and George Dean. Flags floated from the staff on the moulding room and sheds in the yard, and when all things were in readiness the lines of Longfellow's "Building of the Ships" came to the mind of our reporter:

"All is finished! and at length
Has come the bridal day
Of beauty and of strength.
To-day the vessel shall be launched!
With fleecy clouds the sky is blanched.
And o'er the bay
Slowly, in all his splendor light
The great sun rises to behold the sight.

There she stands,
With her foot upon the sands,
Decked with flags and streamers gay,
In honor of her marriage day,
Her snow white signals fluttering, blending
Round her like a veil descending,
Ready to be
The bride of the grey old sea.

Then the Master,
With a gesture of command,
Waved his hand;
And at the word,
Loud and sudden there was heard,
All around them and below,
The sound of hammers, blow on blow,
Knocking away the shores and spurs.

And see! she stirs!
She starts,—she moves,—she seems to feel
The thrill of life along her keel,
And, spurning with her foot the ground
With one exulting, joyous bound
She leaps into the ocean's arms,
And lo! from the assembled crowd
There rose a shout, prolonged and loud,
That to the ocean seemed to say,
"Take her, O bridegroom, old and grey;
Take her to thy protecting arms,
With all her youth and all her charms."

Some difficulty was experienced in getting the boat afloat, but by the aid of three tugs the thing was accomplished. After the launch Mr. Everson entertained his friends, with that generous hospitality for which he is noted, at his residence. Miss May T. Smith christened the Thomas Dickson by breaking a bottle over its nose, and our reporter saw lots of fellows who wished they were going to be launched just for the fun of having Miss May break a bottle across their proboscis.

Runaway.

Charles Osterhoudt and Annie Farren were out riding last evening in upper Kingston, and as they came up St. James street and were turning the corner near Chas. Brodhead's in East Front street, a child ran under the horse. Osterhoudt pulled his horse quickly to one side. The wagon gave a lurch which threw him to the ground. The horse then ran up East Front street with Miss Farren seated in the wagon, the lines dangling on the shafts. The sight was a fearful one, and crowds of people gathered on the walks and followed the course of the flying animal. As the horse neared Wolvin's stable where he belongs, a dozen men ran out to catch him. He evaded them and increased his speed to a fearful gait. Miss Farren places her hands over her eyes, and awaited the catastrophy that was expected every moment. The horse neared the corner of John and East Front street, and suddenly turned up John, the wagon turned partly on its side and Miss Farren was thrown heavily on the pavement. The wagon next ran against a tree near by, which cut the top clear off. The now maddened animal with the remnants of the vehicle, continued its course until the wagon struck a post and put an end to the scene. Wonderful to relate neither of the parties are dangerously hurt. Osterhoudt has his leg somewhat bruised, and Miss Farren's ankle is badly sprained.

Henry Ward Beecher's "Life of Jesus the Christ."

We have now before us the first volume of this long expeted work. For more than four years has this distinguished divine and author been studiously engaged on this work and the result is a remarkable production, probably the greatest work of the kind of this or any age. He calls it "the work of his life," and from what we have read, the statement is but modestly made; we shall call it the great work of a great, loving and devoted heart. Everybody that has a library should have this book, and those, if there be such, who have hardly a book in the house should not fail to have this one.

The work is not only intensely interesting, but is also instructive, and is wrought up in that peculiarly fascinating style, which at once both pleases and teaches.

The book contains innumerable gems of thought, many of them of rare beauty—an irrepressible charm which one seldom finds in theological or religious productions. It is too, a solid work. Here, from the "Overture of Angels," 2d Chapter:

"We could not imagine the advent stripped of its angelic lore. The dawn without a twilight, the sun without clouds of silver and gold, the morning on the fields without dew-diamonds—but not the Saviour without his angels! They shine within the temple, they bear to the matchless mother a message which would have been disgrace from mortal lips, but which from theirs fell upon her as pure as dew drops upon the lilies of the plains of Esdraelon. They communed with the Saviour in his glory of transfiguration, sustained him in the anguish of the garden, watched at the tomb; and as they had thronged the earth at his coming, so they seemed to have hovered in the air in multitudes at the hour of his ascension. Beautiful as they seem, they are never mere poetic adornments. The occasions of their appearing are grand. The reasons are weighty * * * Their very coming and going is not with earthly movement. They suddenly are seen in the air as one sees white clouds round out from the blue sky, in a Summer's day, that melt back even while one looks upon them. They vibrate between the visible and invisible. They come without motion. They go without flight. They dawn and disappear. Their words are few, but the advent chorus yet is sounding its music thro' the world."

The book is bound in eight different styles, and shows specimens of thoroughly good book making. The type is made in Scotland, and the paper in England, expressly for this work.

A series of beautiful and original engravings and the maps engraved on copper and on stone in two tints by Colton.

This is a subscription book only and can be had of the authorized agent, Mr. Thomas S. Holman, who will canvass this City. His address is Rondout Post Office, N. Y.

We cheerfully commend him to the public and advise all to look at his prospectus book.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

REGULAR MEETING.

MONDAY, June 17.

The Common Council met at Lackawanna Engine House, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. All the Aldermen were present except Booth, who sent in the following communication, which was read by the clerk:

WILBUR, June 14, 1872.

THE HON. THE MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y.:

The demands of my business, away from home, and other circumstances beyond my control, rendering it impossible for me to meet in Council, or fulfill my duty to the city, I beg leave, most respectfully, to offer my resignation as Alderman of the 8th ward, of said city.

Very Respectfully
Your Obedient Servant,
N. BOOTH.

On motion of Alderman Sahler his resignation was accepted. The same gentleman then moved that the Council proceed to fill the vacancy. Tremper wished to postpone it for one week. A communication was then read signed by the principal citizens of Wilbur asking that Edward Kearney be elected to fill the vacancy. He was thereupon unanimously elected.

A petition from E. Sampson, asking for a drain on Canal street, was then read, which was granted on motion of Alderman Tremper.

Also a petition asking for sewers between Hasbrouck Avenue and Division street. This was referred to a special committee of five, including the Mayor and Street Superintendent. The Mayor appointed on said committee Alderman Larkin, Koons and Gurnee.

The major share of the members of James G. Lindsley Steam Fire Engine Company asked that one of their own number be allowed to run their engine.

A number of bills were presented and referred to the Committee on Accounts.

The Aldermen here had a lively discussion over a bill of Hiram Myers, special policeman, for making some arrests. Some claimed he should be paid as other officers are, while others thought his pay from private sources was sufficient.

Ald. Westbrook said there had been no arrests of men living in the 1st ward. Ald. Tremper declared there had been no riotous proceedings in the 2d.

Action was had on a petition to open Tremper avenue (was this named after Tom?) to Esther Avenue, so as to connect Hasbrouck with Albany avenue.

The bill of James Duncan for lighting lamps was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Committee on Streets reported in favor of grading Pierpont street and asked time.—In relation to the pool of water on lot of Thomas Cornell, on Mason street, they thought it could be drained with but little expense.

The side walk on Mason, from Wurts to Hone, was ordered completed; so also that on East Front, near F. L. Westbrook's.

The following bills were allowed on report of the Auditing Committee:

Henry Houghtaling, $39.00; A. C. Willis, inspector, $9.00; Wm. G. Hayes, inspector, $9.00; Chas Reynolds, inspector, $6.00; John F. DuFlon, inspector, $9.00; Philip Lindermen, inspector, $6.00.

The Committee on Laws and Ordinances reported several new regulations. There was some discussion on the fee on spiritual meetings. Westbrook was opposed to it. Durham took the same stand. The Mayor said, "why not spiritualism as well as minstrels?"

On motion the report was confirmed and rates fixed as follows:

Circuses, each day,	$50.00
Caravans,	25.00
Side Shows,	5.00
Negro Minstrels,	10.00
Panoramas,	5.00
Concerts,	3.00
Necromancy,	5.00
Natural Curiosities,	3.00
Theatres, 1st day,	10.00
" Each day after 1st,	3.00
Gift Entertainments,	25.00
Exhibitions of Spiritualism,	25.00

A communication from S. D. Coykendall was read, stating he would furnish gas at $22 per night. The committee was instructed to make a contract.

A special committee on Pound reported in favor of a lot of George Bug, on Hasbrouck Avenue. Adopted. It was ordered fenced at at a cost of $80.

The Street Superintendent then reported in favor of improvements in various streets in the East end.

On motion of Alderman Canfield the sidewalks on Hone street, from Abeel to Holmes, Holmes to Union Avenue, and Union Avenue to the old village bounds, were ordered flagged forthwith.

The Board of Health reported one case of small-pox in the Pest House, two on the Point Road and one on the Wilbur road.

The following gentlemen were then confirmed as members of the Fire Department:

Aldermen Sahler, Fredenbergh and Westbrook were appointed a committee to confer with the officers of the Horse Railroad on improvements to the streets in the upper part of the city.

On motion of Alderman Tubby, Lackawanna engine house was ordered repaired.

Alderman Tremper got through a standing committee on Repairs.

On motion, Aldermen Pettit, Plough and Tremper were appointed a committee to look after the laying of the track of the Wallkill Valley Railway through the street.

On motion, Silas Keyser be appointed Pound Master Western Department. Laid over.

Richard Deyo was appointed appraiser of improvements on Hasbrouck avenue.

Alderman Durham called from the table a resolution designating the FREEMAN and Journal as official papers. The matter was referred to the Committee on Finance, with orders to inquire for rates. Adjourned.

The Wallkill Valley Railroad War.

At the hour appointed yesterday morning, the 18th, the officers and foremen of the Wallkill Valley Railway appeared before justice Brodhead at his rooms behind Fred. Norton's counter. After much parleying on the part of Clay Carman and others of Fred's bosses, his Honor John exacted $1,000, bail from each one for their appearance at court, except Patrick Flynn. He had been a little bellicose, and threatened to bring up 1,000 men from the Erie to clean out Norton's gang for rest. This the justice thought smacked too much of real danger, wherefore he asked $2,000 for him. It seems Pat is the "big gun."

It is strange Brodhead should have asked so large an amount. Those most familiar with such proceedings say $100 should have been sufficient. The common opinion is he was biased by his relations to his employers.

In the meantime the work of laying the track went on, and proceeded so briskly that by three o'clock, it was almost completed over Norton's land, but then a new dodge stopped all hands. The portly form of Sheriff Kerr appeared and served an injunction—that great legal block. It was signed by Judge Ingalls, and made returnable on the 25th inst, Tuesday. It in substance, restrains the company or any of its employees from laying track or using it.

After this Hecker cooly laid by his tools and took his departure to the city, while his men sought the shade.

☞ The Great North American Circus and Humpty Dumpty Pantomime Troupe, which has been organized this season, will make its first visit to Saugerties on Wednesday, June 19th, and give two performances. As this is its first season, everything is fresh and new, from the comfortable and expensive canvass to the most inconsiderable article and item.—It will be found to differ in many respects from the ordinary circuses, which come through the country year after year, exhibiting the same stale programme, and the same "educated horses," whose "tricks" we know all about before hand, and treat us to the venerable jokes at which our great-grandfathers once laughed. The North American Circus has aimed at reforming all this, by engaging a company of fresh, young, ambitious people, who have struck out into new paths in every department of the arena, and who will appear in a programme bristling with novelties. The company numbers among its more notable members, Emma Arrilla, a young and beautiful woman, who has won a wide reputation abroad, and who has recently come to this country, with a view of winning new laurels. There are besides several other lady riders, singers, danseuses, etc., and the young and wonderful Willie Showls, the youngest rider of a principal bare-back act in the world.—Though but a mere child, he does all that the well known James Robinson accomplishes, and that too, with the vim of a man and not the shrinking timidness of an infant. The company includes many other accomplished artists, whose names and specialties will be found in the advertisement, but we may mention that the North American boasts two clowns who are said to be the "funniest men alive." In addition to the circus organization there is another distinct company of first-class artists, who are known the country over for their excellence. We refer to Butler's New York Pantomime Troupe, from the Theatre Comique, New York. These artists will appear every evening in the Pantomime of "Humpty Dumpty," at the conclusion of the circus performance, and will also appear every afternoon in a pantomime extravaganza. Taken in all its departments no more attractive show than this has ever visited us, and we feel assured that it will meet with the liberal patronage it deserves; and all for one price of admission.

☞ The new Manhattan Market, Thirty-fourth Street, North River, will be ready for occupation August 1st. The lease of stands for five years begins July 1st. 208

The Greatest Excitement

SINCE THE FLOOD!

A. M. Low's

PROCLAMATION

FOR 1872,

READ IT!

A. M. LOW, the popular Boot and Shoe Dealer of No. 19 Wall street, City of Kingston, desires the people to know that he has stocked his store for the Spring and Summer of 1872 with all the very latest styles of Boots and Shoes, which he is now offering at a figure that is an inducement for all in want of foot gear to extend to him their patronage. In the line of Men's Wear he introduces for the season a superior article of hand-made shoes, manufactured by Messrs. HANAN & REDDISH, of New York City. They are decidedly the "nobbiest" style ever placed in the market, made from the very best material and of the very best finish, and for which he is the sole agent in the City of Kingston. Besides these he has all other kinds in market of all the various shapes, styles, quality and prices.

Low has also the exclusive sale in this city of Women's and Misses' Shoes manufactured by Reynolds Brothers of Utica, and Munsen & Co. of Albany, articles celebrated for their beauty, finish, durability and peculiarity of preserving their shape. He is selling heaps of them daily, which is the best advertisement they can have, for everybody who buys them recommends them to their neighbors. As usual his stock is full in all the other grades of this line and will be kept so during the season.

Boys, Youths, Misses, Children, and Infants all go to Low's to get their feet clothed, for there they can find a stock to select from that beats anything outside of New York City. Had he space he would like to enumerate further—but it would fill this paper, and therefore he is obliged to stop with the simple announcement that he has the LALGEST STORE AND STOCK IN THE CITY—that he purchases at Wholesale and sells at retail, and that he is determined to keep the lead in his line of business, and not seeking a monopoly, invites competition from all sources, confident that he will at least make his store worthy of patronage and one of the leading features of the new City of Kingston.

Respectfully, A. M. LOW,

THE IMPROVED

WHEELER & WILSON

Again Improved.

PERFECTION is our motto, and with this end in view, we have so improved the

FEEDING DEVICE

as vastly to improve its efficacy, while at the same time much less skill and care are required in its management. Neither the thread nor the cloth require holding, and both the thickest and thinnest goods are sewed perfectly. Seams are crossed with greater ease, and the work guided with scarce an effort. The

Distinctive Feature

of this Machine is the

ROTARY HOOK

to carry the loop of the upper thread around the spool containing the under, MAKING THE LOCK STITCH ALIKE ON BOTH SIDES OF FABRIC, thereby doing away with the vibratory motion of the shuttle, the tension upon the under thread, and all devices for taking up slack thread, necessary on all other two-thread machines. The public have endorsed these principles by purchasing 50,000 of our Machines.

Many new machine companies have had their rise and fall—their machines once popular now scarcely known—others have made radical changes in order to exist; while the Howe Machine Company have adhered to the opinion of "Elias Howe, Master of Mechanics" ("The machine is mechanically correct; does not change"), built addition after addition to their factory, and to-day cannot supply the demand, although turning out six hundred machines a day—just a machine a minute.

The Howe Sewing Machines

Are celebrated and known for doing the best work, using a straight and mush smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine. They are adapted to any and all kinds of family sewing and manufacturing of every description, (from fine lace to patent leather,) making a beautiful and perfect Lock Stich, alike on both sides of the article sewed, and will neither rip nor ravel, and uses less thread.

Every machine is as near perfection as the best machinery in the world can make it. It is the oldest machine and has more improvements, and is nearer perfection than any other machine, the parts being exactly alike. If any of the parts need to be replaced, the operator can replace it, and it will outlast and outwear any machine made. They are remarkably simple and easily learned, sure in their operation, and almost impossible to break or get them out of order. They use any thread directly from the spool. The needle has a perpendicular motion, (absolutely necessary for heavy work,) runs easily, a fast sewer, and almost noiseless. They do not soil the dress of the operator, and do not have to be taken apart to oil and clean. The New Improved Family Machine cannot be surpassed and is without equal, and we CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce a better machine on points of merit. A Hemmer, Feller, Gatherer, Braider, Quilter, Tucking Guide, and all the other necessary Tools go with each machine, free of charge.

☞ Beware of spurious and bogus Howe's. The undersigned is the only authorized Agent for the Genuine Howe Machine.
